International Master Courses

Your personal checklist of required documents:

- the complete WHS application form
- a concise curriculum vitae with details about your educational history, practical experiences (if applicable), research interests, etc.
- higher education entrance qualification (e.g. Secondary School Leaving Certificate, High School Diploma, A-levels, Abitur, one or two years of studying, etc.)
- Bachelor of Arts or equivalent qualification, preferably in Cultural Sciences or other study areas relevant to the World Heritage Studies programme
- transcripts of records (list of subjects taken)
- a letter of motivation (your reasons for applying for WHS and career perspectives)
- two letters of recommendation from professors or employers
- certificate of proficiency in English. Accepted are: TOEFL with a minimum score of 213 points (computer-based), 79 points (internet-based) or 550 points (paper-based); Cambridge Advanced English Test (min. grade B); Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency Test (min. grade B); IELTS (min. 6.5).

Exempted from this regulation are only students whose mother tongue is English and students from countries in which English is the official language. If the language of teaching in your previous course of studies was English, you may still have to provide certificate of proficiency in English.

Please send only officially certified copies of your documents. We only accept certifications from the German embassy or other consular authorities, your former university or a Commissioner for Oaths. In case your documents are not in English or German, you have to provide certified English or German translations from a sworn translator.

Your application will not be processed if your documents are not certified or incomplete. Only transcripts from your home university and TOEFL results can be sent separately. If these documents will be sent separately you have to mention this in your application. Otherwise your documents will be sent back as incomplete.
